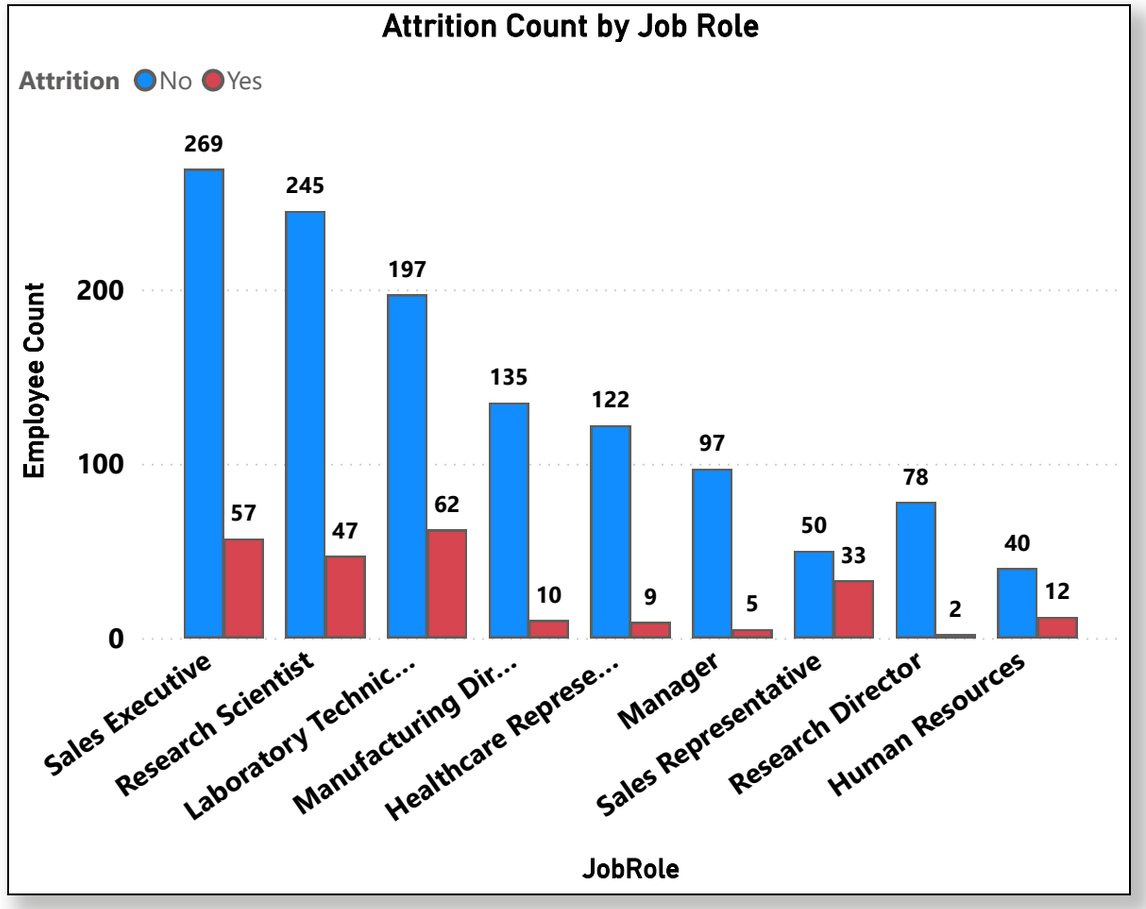
Employee Attrition Overview Dashboard

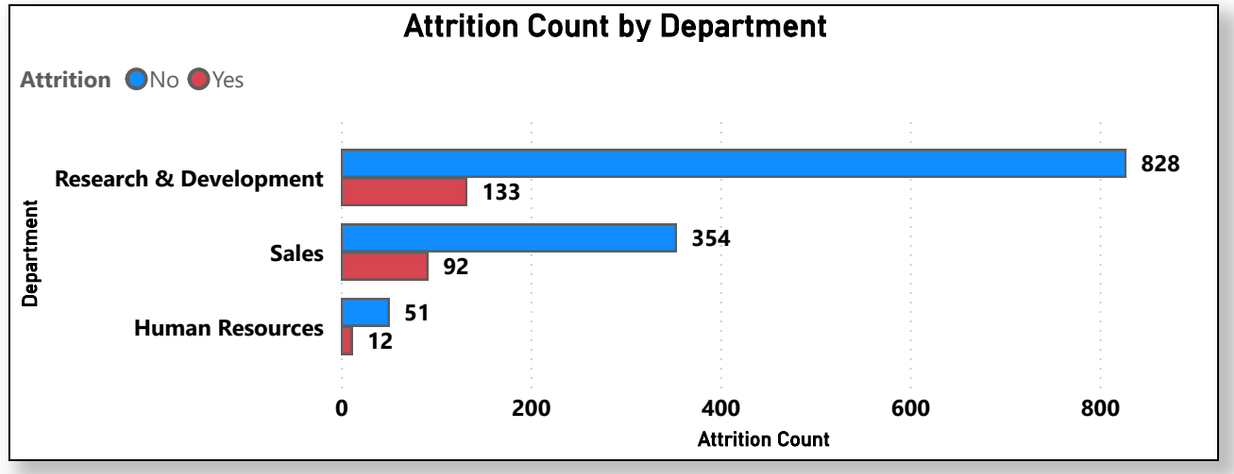
Marital Status: All

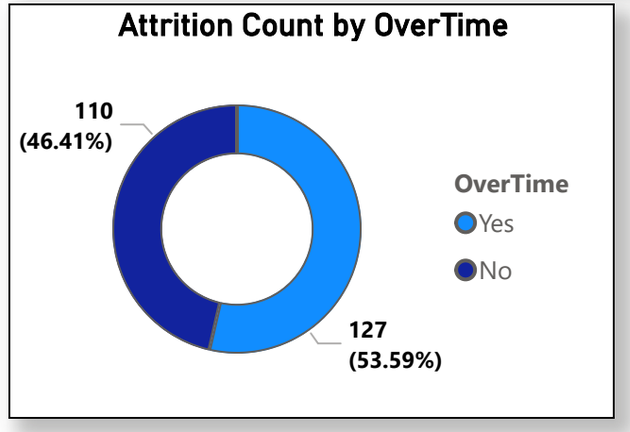
Department: All

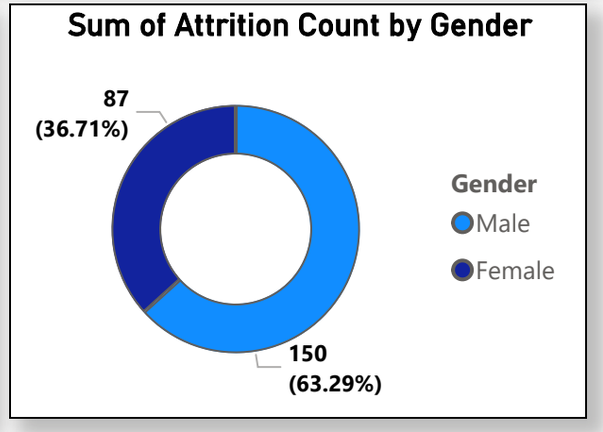
Job Role: All

Total Employees	Attrition Count	Attrition Rate %	Average Monthly Income
1470	237	16.12%	6.50K









Employee Attrition Deep Dive Analysis

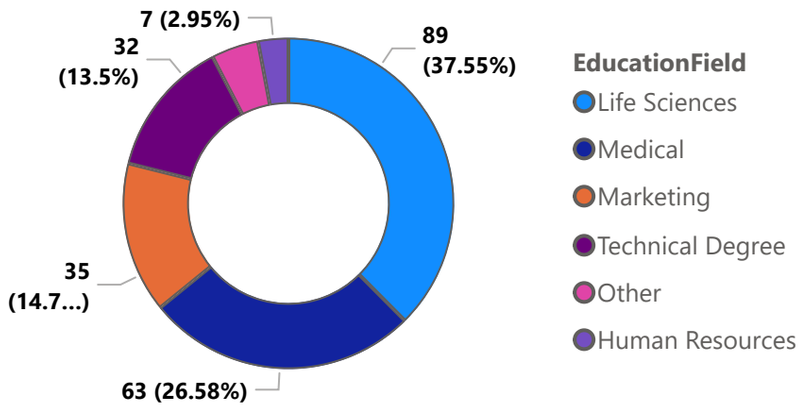
Average Monthly Income

6.50K

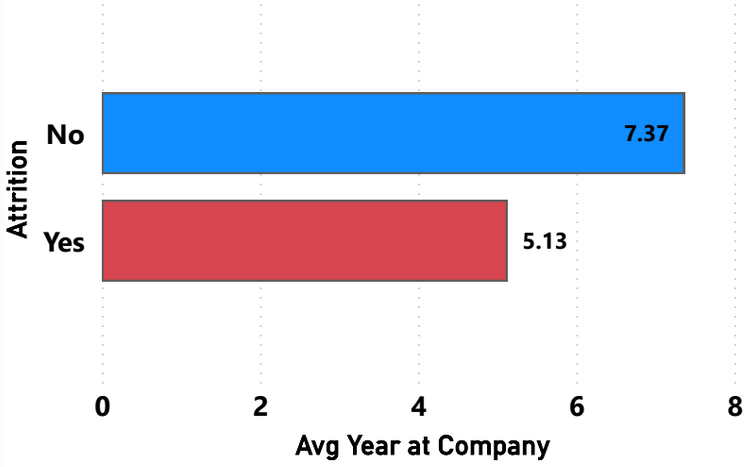
Average Year At Company

7.01

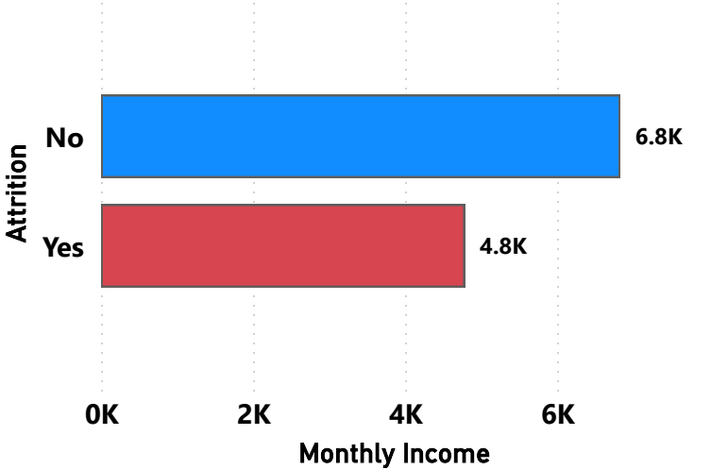
Attrition Count by Education Field



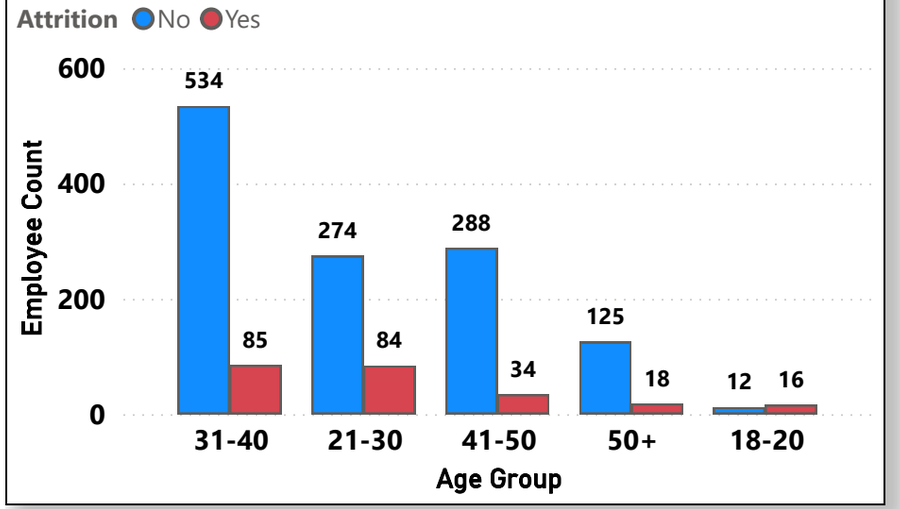
Experience Impact on Attrition



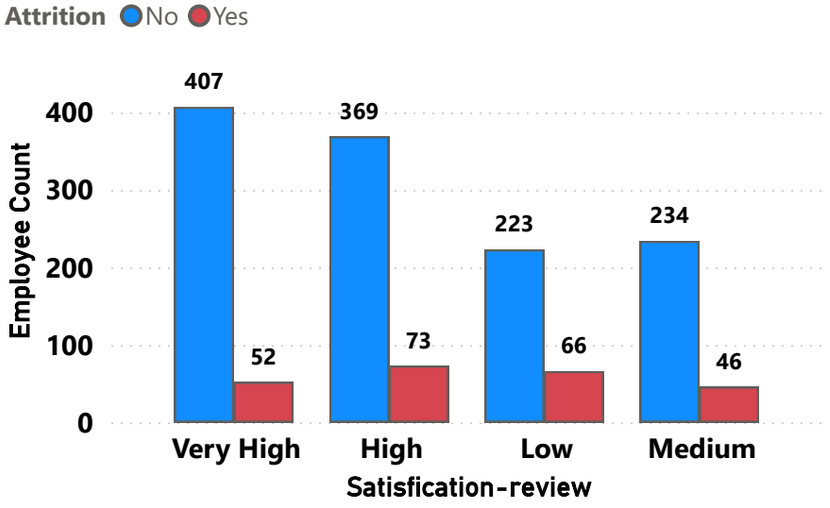
Salary Comparison by Attrition



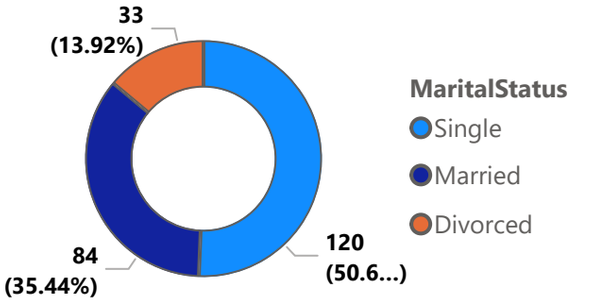
Attrition Count by Age Group



Attrition Count Job Satisfication



Attrition Count by Marital Status



Key Insights & Strategic Recommendations

Insights derived from workforce attrition analysis across demographics, salary, and job roles.

Executive Summary

- Total Employees: 1470
- Overall Attrition Rate: 16.12%
- Total Employees Left: 237
- Average Salary Gap Between Leavers & Stay: ~₹2K difference
- Avg Tenure (Leavers): ~5.1 years vs 7.3 years (Stayed)

Workforce Insights

1. Sales Department shows highest attrition volume
2. Overtime employees have significantly higher exit rate
3. Employees earning lower salaries are more likely to leave
4. Employees with <5 years tenure show higher attrition trend
5. Age group 21–40 is most affected
6. Low & Medium job satisfaction levels show higher attrition
7. Single employees show higher attrition compared to married

High Risk Segments

- Sales Executives
- Employees working overtime
- Early tenure employees
- Lower salary bands
- Employees with low satisfaction

Strategic Recommendations

✓ Improve compensation structure for lower salary bands
✓ Reduce excessive overtime policies
✓ Create early tenure engagement programs
✓ Conduct satisfaction improvement surveys
✓ Focus retention strategy on Sales department